"Our Correspondent weites us under date of Sunday evening, that there was a Cabinet meeting on Sunday in reference to the troubles on based on a memorial signed by John Jav. and a the Maine Frontier. General Scott who arrived at Washington on Saturday evening, it was Resolution at the time, objection being made. rumored was present. The conclusion arrived at, is to send an Executive Communication to Congress Tuesday or Wednesday, asking for sower to raise a body of volunteers for the service on the Maine Frontier and for an appropri ution to defray the expenses.

In the Scrate on Monday the Boundary ques. tion was broached by Mr. Williams of blaine. The correspondent of the Express says, "Mr. Williams of course sides with the Governor of : Mainer Mr. Davis, of Mass., distinguished for his coolness and caution in all matters, takes sides with Maine also: Mr. Walker, of Mississippl, also speaks in strong condemnation of the part Great Britain has taken on this question. He, too, is with Maine. Mr. Linn, of Missouri, goes as far as the farthest, not only in reference to the border troubles in Maine, but more especially in reference to the jurisdiction Great Britain is exercising over the Territory of Oregon. -- Mr. Lina thinks that John Bull has done quite enough to arouse the wrath of Brother Jonathan. He is quite ready for a fight.

IF A portion of the detachment of the 7th Division of the militia of this State, marched from Franklio on Thursday for Calais: A de-*acha-cat of 800 have been made from the 7th division and they are all ordered to rendezvous at Calais.

If An i. portent era is approunding, when great events may be expected by the people of these United States. After the third of blarch, which is within less than three weeks of us, the nation will lose the public services of several distinguished individuals, who for nome years past, have, in their own opinions at least, acted very important parts on the public theatre. One of theze is the Honorable Churchill C. Cambreleng, a representative from the city of New York, and for a price of years Citairman of the Committee of Ways and Means in the House of Representatives, who will be under the painful necessity of refiring from the scene in which he has anied so canapicuous a part, and leaving concerns of the United States to the incongement of such hands as chance may thro. them into. How we shall get along without the aid of his powerful talents, remains to be seen. One thing inay be considered as certain. Van Burenisio will find in his successor, whoever he may be, no more servile or devoted tool; and there ii very little probability of his place at the head of "I financial sa mittes being filled by a ninter incompetent person.
